

An Insider's Guide to Study Space

Academic Year 2020 - 2021

Paul J. Gutman Library

The Paul J. Gutman Library is located on the East Falls campus of Thomas Jefferson University. The library provides Jefferson students, staff, and faculty with space, resources, and support to achieve their learning and research goals.

The library offers access to more than 100 prominent databases, field-leading academic journals, and periodicals. The Special Collections, Materials Library, and Textile & Costume Collection connect students and researchers to a world of historical artifacts, garments, photographs, and more. The library contains printers, scanners, copiers, and over 80 computers.

This guide provides details on the library areas designated for quiet study. Please respect all restrictions noted in this guide and always throw away your trash when you leave an area.

hours

Library hours are subject to change. For the most up-to-date hours, visit library.jefferson.edu/gutman.

Mondays – Thursdays: 8 a.m. – 10 p.m.
Fridays: 8 a.m. – 4 p.m.
Saturdays: 11 a.m. – 5 p.m.
Sundays: Closed

contact us

EMAIL: AskGutman@jefferson.edu

WEBSITE: library.jefferson.edu/gutman

PHONE: (215) 951-2848

TWITTER: @GutmanLibrary

COVID-19 UPDATE:

ALL LIBRARY VISITORS MUST WEAR FACE MASKS AND MAINTAIN SOCIAL DISTANCING GUIDELINES.

For the latest updates on Gutman Library's COVID-19 protocols, visit library.jefferson.edu/gutman

upper level

QUIET STUDY

- 2 study rooms
- Individual study carrels
- Group study tables

main level

- 4 small study rooms
- 1 large group study room
(can be reserved in advance)
- Individual study carrels
- Journals & Materials Collection
- Library Instruction Space (for group study or can be used as a classroom, seats up to 20 people)
- Popular Reading Lounge
- Reference Desk
- Circulation Desk

lower level

QUIET STUDY

- Bound journals
- Individual study carrels
- IT Help Desk
- Special Collections

reserving rooms

- Study Room 101 (on Main Level) can be reserved in advance with a current Campus ID card. To reserve Study Room 101, call (215) 951-2480, email Meg.Leister@jefferson.edu, or visit the Circulation Desk on the first floor.
- All other study rooms are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Visit us online to learn more about what is available in the Gutman library, including details about our collections and how librarians can support you.